FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SPIFF UP YOUR BATH WITH AN ART DECO TWIST!

INTRODUCING THE BOSTONIAN FAUCET FROM WATERMARK DESIGNS.

Sharing the hallmarks of geometry and simplicity with art deco style, the Bostonian's classic silhouette is simply glam!

(Spring Creek, New York, March 2005) The Bostonian widespread faucet by Watermark Designs offers a new twist on tradition. Endowed with a sleek profile and an elegantly classic swan-like spout, the unexpected injection of linear lines creates art deco-inspired geometric shapes.

The '30s-era deco impression touches the faucet, lever handles and bases, as well as the drain knob. Superbly executed, the Bostonian is a timeless classic that harkens to the past with dimension and charisma. Appealing to the discerning consumer, the design combines the sturdiness of solid brass with one of Watermark's stunning finishes. The Bostonian faucet is shown in Gunmetal.

The Bostonian widespread style is available in 35 popular finishes, allowing consumers to create a variety of different looks. It lists between $702 and $917, depending on the finish. And, like all Watermark faucets, the Bostonian provides a lifetime warranty on valves and finishes.

Consumers are also assured of a cohesive look as the Bostonian widespread faucet can be completely coordinated with matching tub and shower sets, bath accessories, light fixtures, mirrors, grab bars and slide bars. And, like most of Watermark's bath faucets, the Bostonian is also available in a kitchen faucet.

With Watermark the style possibilities are further multiplied. In addition to choosing a finish, you have the option of selecting the faucet and handle style to create your desired look. When coordinated with Watermark's matching accessories, the only limitation is your imagination.
