FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WATERMARK'S TITANIUM FAUCET WINS KITCHEN & BATH BUSINESS PRODUCT INNOVATOR AWARD!

(Spring Creek, New York. December 7, 2006) Watermark Designs is proud to announce the prestigious honor of winning a 2006 KITCHEN AND BATH BUSINESS Product Innovator Award for their Titanium Faucet. Watermark Designs' Titanium Faucet unites the foremost minimalism design trend without sacrificing functionality.

The new Titanium Faucet will be featured in the December issue of KITCHEN AND BATH BUSINESS. KITCHEN AND BATH BUSINESS Magazine is the established authority for kitchen and bath enthusiasts. It provides readers with a solid knowledge base of products and price points that empowers them to make informed purchasing decisions.

"This is an remarkable accomplishment for Watermark, and we are so delighted to be honored by the industry's top kitchen and bath magazine for product innovation," said Avi Abel, General manager for Watermark Designs.

Housed in a sleek casing with an advanced titanium mechanism, the unique Titanium Series 22 Faucet from Watermark Designs provides high-tech one-touch functionality for your bath with a remarkable new technology – hydroprogressive engineering. The Watermark Titanium Series 22 Faucet ranges in price from $875 to $1521 depending on finish.
